Plaintiff, United States of America, and defendant, Andre Parker, after consulting with the probation officer, hereby stipulate to the following schedule for resolution of the Superseding Petition for Warrant or Summons filed July 25, 2025. This schedule is needed because defense counsel is unavailable in August because of previously scheduled surgery. The purpose of the amendment is to ameliorate delay resulting from counsel's unavailability.

First, the parties agree that the July 30 date for arraignment on the superseding petition may be continued to September 3, 2025, at 2:00 p.m. before the duty magistrate judge.

Second, the parties agree that the admit/deny hearing scheduled for July 31, 2025, may be continued to September 4, 2025, at 9:30 a.m.

Third, Mr. Parker and the probation office have reached an agreement under which Mr. Parker will admit to four violations related to drug use as charged in the superseding petition, specifically, charges 1, 2, 5, and 6, with charges 3 and 4 to be dismissed. In light of Mr. Parker's agreement to admit these charges, probation has agreed to prepare and file a dispositional memorandum no later than August 21, so that the dispositional hearing may be held immediately following Mr. Parker's admissions. Accordingly, the parties agree that the matter may also be scheduled for disposition on September 4, 2025, at 9:30 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: July 25, 2025
